

Welcome to extraordinary experiences!

VEJRØ

Welcome to extraordinary experiences!

Vejrø, where the dream of a small island on which people, animals and nature thrive in balance, lives on!

The Idyll is offered to those who want to appreciate and be appreciated and those who want to see, taste and just be.

Let this booklet be an inspiration for a visit to Vejrø.

Welcome to Vejrø!

Thomas Gellert Larsen
Director, Vejrø ApS

Here, we provide a professional service safely, in a relaxed and informal way. Here, the details are thought through thoroughly and implemented naturally. Here, there is neither too much nor too little, no pretence – the concept is genuine and heartfelt. Here everything is in balance!

Unpretentious and genuine atmosphere

Leave behind the feeling of a lack of time on the mainland. Come to Vejrø and experience the island, which encompasses: Charm, atmosphere, spirit, soul and aesthetics – wildness and gentleness.

On Vejrø there is joy when the chickens hatch, when the first potatoes are dug up, when the port has sailing guests and when visitors stay in the houses. When all these small, basically informal, events meet in symbiosis at the restaurant, there is a festive spirit at Vejrø.

Discovering with all your senses...

On Vejrø you are closer to nature! You smell, taste and feel the changing seasons more intensely and the island has everything from barren deserts, swampy troll forests and windswept sanddunes, to calm forest lakes, rolling meadows and flourishing flower gardens.

Experience the history of the island in the whisper of the deserted graveyard, the flash of the hexagonal lighthouse, and gasp at the traces of mythical island life. Experience the animals - we hardly know whether they are wild or tame - chickens, pigs, sheep and cows live as if they were living in the wild, while pheasants, hares and deer seem almost tame. Experience the beach, where there is always a stretch with shelter, and always a spot on the island, where you can get the feeling of being alone in the world.

If a feeling of vacuum, or incipient island insanity, suddenly intrude upon you, it is merely a short walk to the friendly houses, the obliging restaurant, the tempting farm shop and the challenges of the tennis court.

Sweet dreams and sublime dining

Take in the island, starting at the port and your own boat, or get accommodation in one of the island's historic houses. In this free and friendly setting, the houses are a good starting point for experiencing Vejro. They are furnished with comfort in mind and the rooms entice sweet dreams. The kitchens invite you to use them, the living rooms emanate blessed peace, and the terraces and barbecues in the gardens encourage long, luminous nights.

Full board is prepared in the restaurant with its solid oak beams and raw bricks, and monumental fireplaces ooze ambience. Here, there is a special wine cellar for the dedicated, a cafe with aroma and taste from warmer climes, the farm shop with nothing but good things, and the first floor with space for both relaxation and work.

The restaurant in particular places great emphasis on exploiting Vejro's own organic raw materials and resources in an inspiring and rustic way. Here, hearty meals are served with finesse – here, too, everything is balanced!

By keeping to the principle of balance we ensure that Vejnrø does not lose its intimacy. The resources offered are rare and attractive, so use the opportunity that you have.

Visiting Vejrø - time for peace and contemplation

Visit Vejrø on a private recreational errand, as a professional group in need of peace and space for creative thinking, as a sailor with unconventional desires, as a hunter with a penchant for informal and intimate hunting, as a guest on a course, as an angler, as a gourmet, as a botanist, as a pilot, as a daydreamer, as lovers, as a stargazer- and so on and so forth.

The roadster or the four wheel drive must be left behind on the mainland, but its easy to get to Vejrø in the island's new comfortable boat, Vejrø 1. If you are game for more, you can sail yourself, or fly here. In any event, the trip is a worthwhile experience in itself.

On Vejrø our produce is Totally Organic and Sustainable!

Our farm grows feed for:

- Hens and cockerels, winners of Ecological Gold in 2009
- Free range wild domestic pigs
- Dexter cattle, who have year-round access to Vejrø meadows
- Sâne lambs running about happily - and make fantastic eating later on
- Hares and deer, partridges and pheasants can be found all over Vejrø

Vejrø's own talented gardener, Martin, delivers:

- Crisp vegetables
- Fragrant Herbs
- Tasty Berries
- Juicy Fruit
- Beautiful flowers

Everything can be seen, tasted and smelled if you visit the lovely Sissel in Vejrø's:

- Welcoming restaurant, with great food
- Attractive Farm Shop, with many exciting products
- Cafe, with the best coffee

The whole menagerie can be experienced from:

- Your own boat in the new harbour
- Private plane
- The island's historic, but newly renovated, rental houses

We provide everything for :

- Meetings
- Off-sites
- Events
- Tours
- Holidays
- Hunting
- Fishing
- The beach
- Honeymoon
- And much more...

Vejrø tel: + 45 20 27 23 60
Fax.: + 45 54 71 33 85
info@vejroedk
CVR: 12 85 97 83
www.vejroedk

